Montenapoleone concept

I prodotti della collezione Montenapoleone rifuggono la banalità per realizzare soluzioni esclusive e poliedriche, nel rispetto di un carattere raffinato e inconfondibile che seduce attraverso la bellezza delle sue proposte. Quando mi è stato chiesto di progettare arredi per questa nuova collezione ho pensato immediatamente a progettare prodotti che potrebbero essere facilmente attribuibili a Medea Lifestyle 1905. Per questa collezione ho pensato di creare modelli con particolare dettagli costruttivi che potessero rendere un pezzo unico e riconoscibile. Ho focalizzato la mia attenzione sul design, la forma, i dettagli decorativi e anche sulla comodità e comfort. Il mio obiettivo era quello di realizzare prodotti in cui lo stile e il comfort potessero essere armonizzati fra loro in un design contemporaneo arricchito da materiali preziosi.

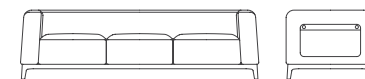

Exclusive and eclectic projects, where the atypical uniqueness of Medea style is visible. Functional, contemporary pieces with an unmistakable style, integrating the highest artisanship and woodworking tradition with the use of the most modern product technologies. When I was asked to design furniture for this new collection I thought immediately to design products that could be easily attributable to the manufacturing company. For this collection I thought to create models with particular constructing details that could make every piece unique and recognizable. I focalized my attention on design, shape, decorative details and also on commodity and comfort. My aim when I projected the furniture for this collection was to make models in which style and comfort could be harmoniously matched, enriching them with precious materials and contemporary design.

UMBERTO ASNAGO

Umberto Asnago, was born in 1949. He graduated at the Art Institute of Cantù and began his design experience working with a well-known furniture company, in which subsequently he assumed the direction of the Research Center.

In 2006 he undertook the career of designer developing furniture collections for important furniture companies.

In 2011 he designed a collection for the first company he worked with and becoming again part of the designers team.

He is currently art director and designer for a company of lighting too. He has also realized several set-up of showrooms and stands for furniture and fashion companies.

These experiences make Umberto Asnago a character capable of dealing with professionalism the rapid evolutions that characterize the furnishing sector.
