

 LARSEN

2021 COLLECTION

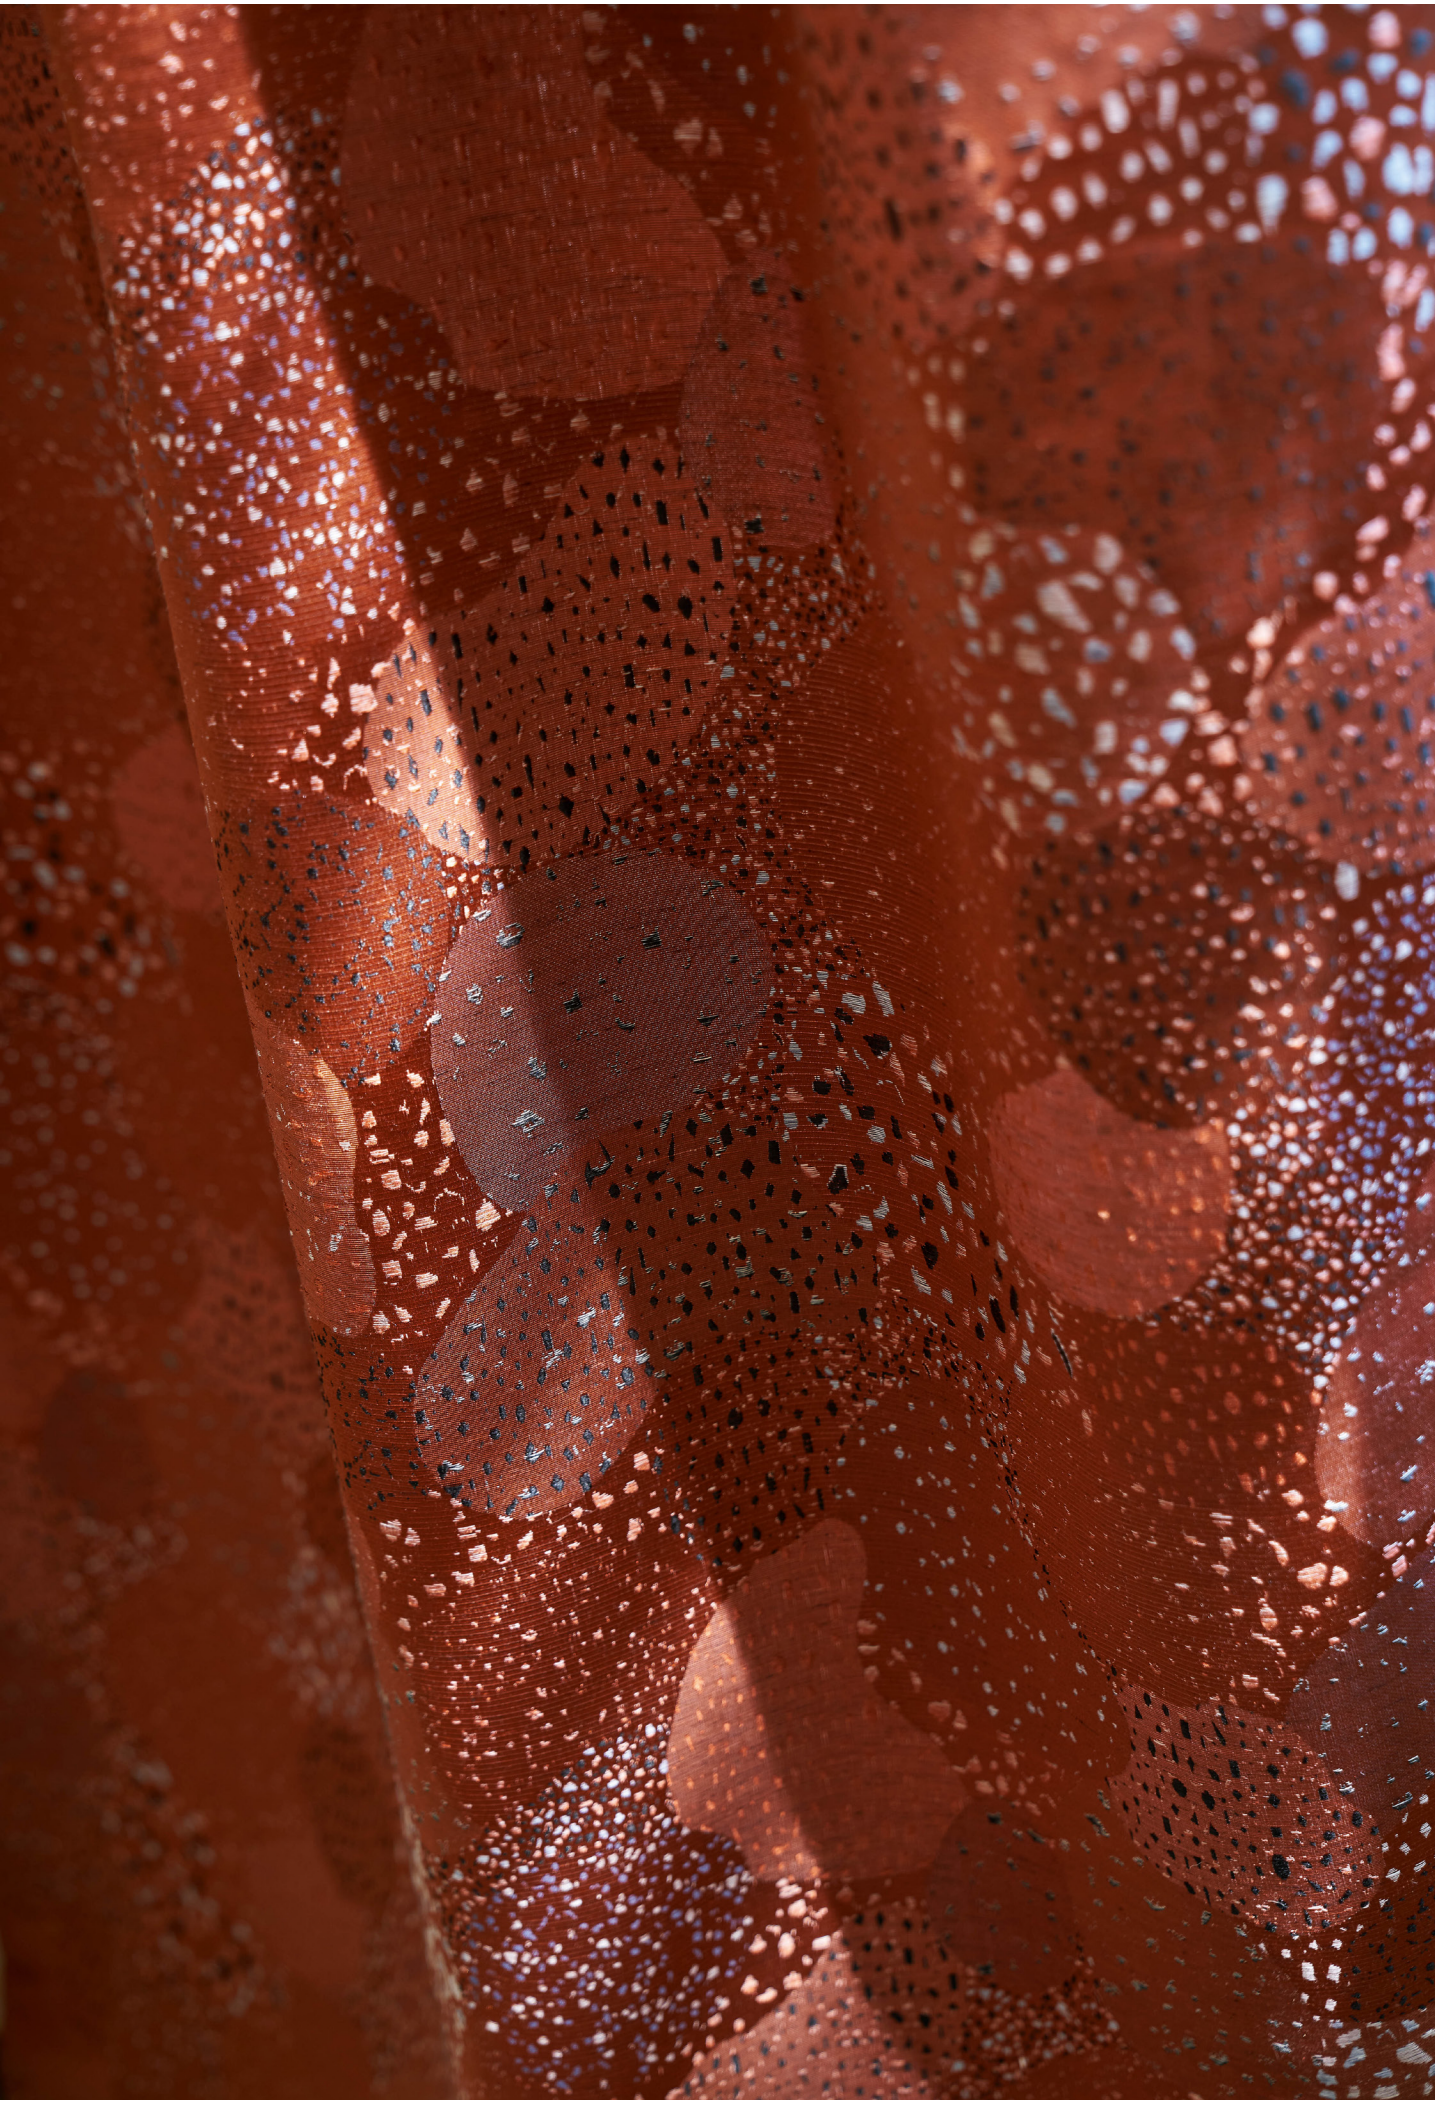

The new collection from Larsen blends organic abstraction with Japanese-inspired serenity in an expressive architectural collection that renews the studio’s admired signature.

This spring, the Larsen studio focuses on three key design themes important to the brand since its birth under the late Jack Lenor Larsen; pattern, texture and light.

Screen: Hillside
Armchair: Montecito
Cushion: Montana

Stool: Sahara
Background: Kara

Pattern

Nature's enduring appeal is illustrated through the fine jacquards, exquisite embroideries and bold prints of the Hillside decorative collection. Abstract renditions of landscapes transport us to rocky deserts and ethereal sunsets with a clear mid century American influence.

Light

Reaffirming a passion for playing with light and transparency the Larsen studio introduces Moonrise sheers. An emphasis on the finest natural materials including linen and wool elevates plain and semi-plain qualities alongside decorative embroideries and ambitious weaves.
