2025 IDEAS

We are thrilled to introduce, for the first time, a collection of innovative and artful pieces designed by Luca Bojola, specifically curated for our debut at the Monaco Yacht Show. This prestigious event is the perfect stage to unveil these masterpieces, which reflect a deep fusion of luxury and creativity. Luca's sketches have come to life in a variety of forms, including the elegantly crafted lighting fixtures, intricate tableware, and unique glasswork.

His vision shines through in pieces like the vibrant, sculptural chandeliers and delicately adorned vases, which push the boundaries of traditional design while maintaining a timeless appeal. Each item in this collection showcases our commitment to craftsmanship, detail, and high-end materials, ensuring that they make a striking impression on the global stage of the Monaco Yacht Show.

The "Glimmer" chandelier is an exquisite blend of artistry and opulence, designed to make a bold statement in any luxurious interior. Its standout feature is the array of intricately crafted crystal leaves, which are arranged in a circular fashion around the chandelier's brass frame. Each crystal leaf is expertly cut to catch and reflect light, creating a shimmering effect that lives up to the chandelier's name.

The brass frame, with its warm golden hue, serves as the perfect contrast to the cool, transparent crystals. The frame itself is elegant and minimal, allowing the beauty of the crystal leaves to take center stage. The leaves have a unique, organic shape, reminiscent of natural foliage, which adds a touch of modernity and sophistication to the overall design.

The chandelier is equipped with integrated lighting that highlights the crystal's intricate detailing, casting a warm, ambient glow throughout the room. This combination of refined materials—brass and crystal—results in a luxurious yet contemporary lighting piece, ideal for high-end interiors seeking both functionality and artful design.

In summary, the "Glimmer" chandelier embodies luxury, featuring masterful craftsmanship in its crystal elements and sleek brass frame, making it a stunning focal point in any space

The "Glimmer" chandelier is not just a singular masterpiece but the beginning of a luminous journey. As the light dances through the finely cut crystal leaves, new variations of this enchanting chandelier will bloom. Each variation will embrace its own unique charm, with different sizes, shapes, and finishes to fit various spaces and moods. Some will feature larger crystal leaves, capturing even more of the light's glow, while others may be more intimate, offering a softer, more subtle sparkle. In every version, the romantic interplay of crystal and brass will remain a constant, making each chandelier a timeless symbol of elegance and light, tailored to elevate any interior space.

As the "Glimmer" collection continues to evolve, it will soon welcome enchanting additions in the form of wall sconces and ceiling lamps. Each new piece will carry the same romantic interplay of shimmering crystal leaves and elegant brass, bringing the collection's signature glow to even more intimate spaces. Whether illuminating a grand hallway or softly adorning a cozy corner, these new variations will extend the magic of "Glimmer," allowing light to dance across walls and ceilings in a mesmerizing display. Every piece in the collection will transform its surroundings into a luminous haven, where elegance and art meet.
