Circularity.

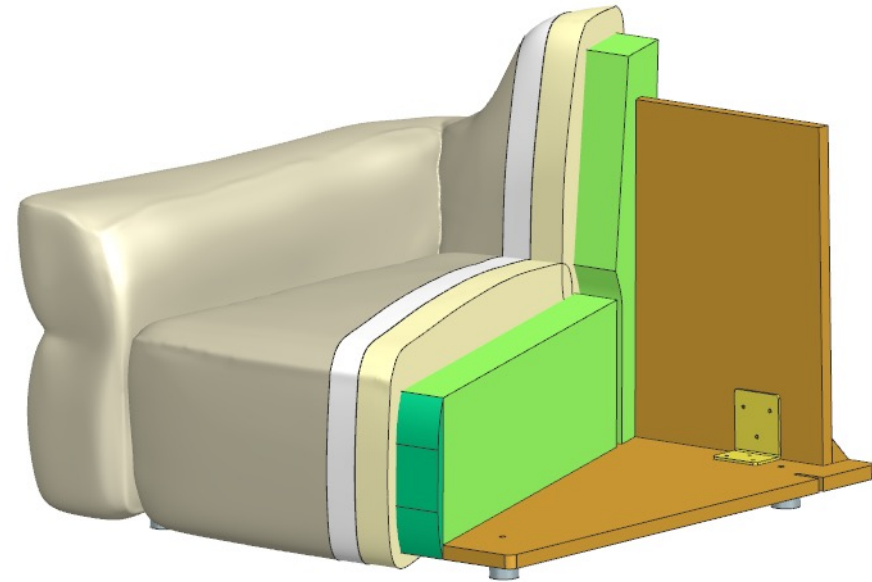

The Fedrigio sofa was designed with the utmost respect for disassembly standards and the use of eco-sustainable materials.

The sofa's load-bearing structure is made of multilayer wood and houses a CIRCULARREFOAM® polyurethane foam moulding, containing a percentage of recycled polyols.

The foam structure, combined with the multilayer, is wrapped in a recycled PET fibre cover, attached to the structure by means of polyester Velcro.

The final cover, divided for practicality into seat and armrest/backrest, is also applied with Velcro.

The absence of adhesives in the sofa's construction allows the product to be completely disassembled at the end of its life, permitting recycling and/or recovery of the individual components.

Wood and glass.

Pierre Charpin celebrates his return to Zanotta with a sculptural table with clean shapes that let the top pattern take centre stage.

The search for colour contrast, between the crystal tiles and the ash top, and the quality of the workmanship make it a piece somewhere between art and design.

It is available in two sizes: 260 and 320 cm.

Price: from € 9.610 + VAT
