The inspiration for this red lotus leaf shaped staircase pendant light comes from the fusion of nature and Eastern aesthetics. The stretching form of the lotus leaf is taken from the vivid image of the lotus pond in summer. Through the red symbol of vitality and enthusiasm, the design not only echoes the freehand brushwork aesthetics of traditional gardens, but also endows space with contemporary artistic tension by means of geometric deconstruction. For designers who want to use red lighting fixturesto decorate their spaces, red lotus leaves are the first choice!
