HIROITO

The inspiration for the Hiroito Collection was born from the conceptual Japanese architecture, in which it seeks to simultaneously express the physical and virtual world. The concept expressed in this design recreates natural branches in the context of a contemporary city; all reflected in the design of everyday objects, reinvented in materials such as golden brass and stainless steel. All this by exhaustively exploring the potentials of new forms, seeking new spatial conditions, which manifest the philosophy of beings without frontiers.

FIRENZE

The city of Florence is the birthplace of the Renaissance and has proudly carried the “Giglio” of Florence on their coat of arms for almost a thousand years. The origin of the lily symbol however is even more ancient and can be traced back to the ruling class of the Roman Empire. The Firenze Collection is a tribute to the jewel of Renaissance, its pattern is directly inspired by Florence’s coat of arms revised and stylized in a brass mesh.

This collection is inspired by the poetry of the Amalfi Coast, and the design, featuring the lovers “Amore e Psiche”, is the perfect symbol of the romanticism that the Amalfi Collection will recreate in your bathroom.

VERSAILLES

This collection entitled Versailles is a tribute to Queen Marie Antoinette and her love for roses. She loved this particular flower, which is apparent, in the furnishings in her Versailles apartments. The Queen was often portrayed with this flower; a symbol of love, beauty and fertility, with different types of roses, the association between Marie Antoinette and the rose is undeniable. The Versailles Collection is a synonym of femininity and sophistication and will give a poetic touch to your bathroom.
