At Ghidini1961, excellence is not a goal but a standard woven into every detail.

Not simply production, but design. Our vision draws from the dialogue between art, architecture, and interior spaces, shaping an aesthetic that is both intentional and distinctive. Each creation reflects the brand's identity through balanced proportions, refined details, and a contemporary sense of form.

1961

Giuseppe Ghidini founded Ghidini Giuseppe Bosco, a company specialized in brass components for the lighting industry.

1981

Ghidini Giuseppe Bosco moves to our current location in Villa Carcina (Brescia), a production site of approx. 12,000sqm. Here the company expands its manufacturing capabilities with new departments for molding, a new foundry, mechanical treatments and polishing workstations.

2016

From the know-how of Ghidini Giuseppe Bosco and collaborations with a diverse team of Italian and international designers, Ghidini1961 was born: an innovative brand, where casted metal is at the core of the design language.

A LEGACY OF PRECISION AND ARTISTRY, TRANSFORMED INTO TIMELESS DESIGN STATEMENTS.
